

At

The Residence, accommodating
you is what we do best.

Every senior is different, with needs all their own. To best meet the varied living requirements of today's independent-minded senior, The Residence offers several types of accommodations within each of our retirement communities. What's more, we also provide the kind of exceptional amenities you would expect from the assisted living industry.

Putting safety first, always.

Seniors have safety and security needs unique to them. For this reason, our communities are equipped with an emergency alert call system which can be activated instantly – bringing immediate assistance from our staff professionals who are on-duty 24 hours a day, 7 days per week.

Each residence also includes the most advanced smoke detection, fire alarm and fire sprinkler technology. There's an emergency electrical back-up system as well, designed to activate automatically in the event of a power outage.

Details, details, details.

Walk through The Residence and one of the first things you notice are the meticulously manicured grounds – colorful flowers, carefully trimmed shrubs and lush green grass.

Step inside The Residence and you'll see rooms decorated with impeccable taste and imaginative flair, featuring color schemes that blend beautifully and accents that communicate quality in every way.

Residents also enjoy a community rich in social and cultural activities. A full-time Recreation Department creates a comprehensive schedule of activities which includes on-site lectures, arts and crafts, exercise and aerobics classes, games, and social events.

With the increasing popularity of the Internet, our community offers computer access to our residents – making it easy for each resident to keep in touch with grandchildren and other family members worldwide through the magic of e-mail.
